In my opinion, this has already been appealed with the attorney general, and the Indiana State Police, when each returned my lifetime permit, and I request again, with apologies, a de novo review considering this information.

5. Please pull all transcripts, evidence, and recordings, from 89C01-2305-PO-000087
Your Honor, in my opinion, this protective order is unconstitutional, a violation of our civil rights, as well unconstitutional at face, fictitious, fraudulent, and fraudulently obtained, in an untimely fashion without legal grounds, in line with your own order showing the alleged victim, alleged petitioner, and alleged attorney could not have filed in another court.
